CLINICAL GROUP

AMERICAN COMMITTEE ON CLINICAL TROPICAL MEDICINE AND TRAVELERS' HEALTH

---

CONSTITUTION AND BYLAWS OF THE CLINICAL GROUP

ARTICLE I

NAME AND PURPOSE

Section 1

This organization shall be called the American Committee on Clinical Tropical Medicine and Travelers' Health (ACCTMTH). In most instances, it will be referred to as the "Clinical Group."

Section 2

The purposes of this organization shall be to promote the Clinical aspects of tropical medicine, medical parasitology and travelers' health.

ARTICLE II

MEMBERSHIP

Section 1

There shall be three classes of members: active, honorary and student.

Section 2

Active members will be those individuals who are members of the American Society of Tropical Medicine and Hygiene (ASTMH), who are actively engaged in, or interested in, clinical aspects of tropical medicine, medical parasitology and/or travelers' health.

Section 3

Students within the biomedical sciences who have an interest in clinical areas of tropical medicine, medical parasitology, and/or travelers' health may become student members. They shall have all the privileges of membership except voting and holding office.

Section 4

Honorary members shall be nominated by a two-thirds vote of the council and approved by at least two-thirds of members' casting votes. Honorary members will be individuals outside this organization recognized for their outstanding contributions to clinical tropical medicine and travelers' health. They shall have all the privileges of membership except voting and holding office.

ARTICLE III

OFFICERS

Section 1

The officers of the organization shall be a President-Elect, President, and Past President, Secretary/Treasurer and three Councilors. Any active member in good standing is eligible for election to office. The officers shall constitute the council, in which the government of the organization shall be vested.

The President-Elect, President and Past President shall each serve terms of one year in succession. The Secretary/Treasurer and the Councilors will be elected for a term of three years. Terms of office in the organization shall begin at the close of the annual meeting at which the officers were declared elected. Officers may run for and serve consecutive terms'.

If the presidency becomes vacant, the President-Elect shall become the President for the remainder of the unexpired term. The President may fill vacancies among the Councilors by appointing Councilors from the active membership to serve until the missing Councilor returns to office or through the remainder of the absent Councilor's term, if return to office is not possible. If the Secretary/ Treasurer is unable to complete his/her term, the President will appoint a replacement from the active membership or Councilors to serve until the next annual meeting when a new Secretary/ Treasurer will be elected.

Section 2

The duties of the President shall be those regularly devolving on the chief executive officer. He/she shall preside at subcommittees as provided in the bylaws.

Section 3

The Secretary/Treasurer and/or Secretariat of the ASTMH shall be the custodian of all records of the Committee. They shall handle the business and finances of the committee and shall submit an annual financial report.

The Secretary/Treasurer and/or Secretariat of the ASTMH shall be responsible for mailings to members, including mailing of ballots and other business matters. The Secretary/ Treasurer shall preside over the Committee in the absence of the President.

Section 4

Council shall annually appoint a nominating subcommittee consisting of five active members. No more than three of those members may be current members of Council. A slate of candidates for offices to be filled at the next annual meeting shall be submitted by mail and/or electronic mail no later than two months prior to the next annual meeting. Members may submit themselves or suggest other active members as candidates to the Chairman of the nominating committee, but the nominating committee will not be obligated to put such individual(s) on the slate unless there is a supporting petition from three active members in addition to the individual proposed.

Election for each office shall be by secret mail and/or electronic mail ballot and determined by majority vote (or by the greatest number of votes if more than two candidates). Mailing and counting ballots shall be the responsibility of the Secretary/Treasurer and/or Secretariat of the ASTMH. The results of voting will be announced in a Newsletter and at the next annual meeting.

ARTICLE IV

AMENDMENT OF CONSTITUTION

Section 1

Amendments to this constitution and bylaws may be adopted on approval by a majority of the ACCTMTH council and upon a two-thirds affirmative vote of ballots cast subject to the following conditions:

The proposed amendment must be in writing and signed by at least three members of the Committee.

The signed proposed amendment must be in the hands of the Secretary/Treasurer and/or Secretariat of the ASTMH before the annual meeting of the Committee.

Voting of proposed amendments by the active members will be done by mail and/or electronic mail, except as provided in section 1d, below. The mailing and counting of ballots shall be the responsibility of the Secretary/Treasurer and/or Secretariat of the ASTMH. Results of balloting will be announced at or before the annual meeting following the vote.

If at least 25 percent of active members are present at an annual meeting, a majority of those present can require a vote on a Council-approved amendment at that meeting. The amendment can be passed by two-thirds of ballots cast.

ARTICLE V

COUNCIL FUNCTION

The Council shall manage the Committee's affairs and direct its business. It shall initiate, coordinate and terminate the work of the subcommittees. It shall have the power to approve the expenditure of funds and establish an annual budget for the Committee.

ARTICLE VI

MEETINGS

The Committee shall meet annually for business and scientific sessions. The business meeting and at least one scientific meeting will be held in conjunction with the annual meeting of the ASTMH.

In addition, Council may call for other scientific sessions for purposes of continuing medical education. Council will determine the time and place of such additional meetings.

In the conduct of business sessions, Robert's Rules of Order shall be the guide. At the beginning of each session, the President shall appoint a member to serve as parliamentarian. Minutes will be recorded and maintained by the Secretary/Treasurer.

ARTICLE VII

SUBCOMMITTEES

The President shall appoint annually a Program Chairman who should work cooperatively with the program committee of the ASTMH. With approval by a majority of council members, the President may create and appoint ad hoc subcommittees, as needed.

ARTICLE VIII

DUES

Dues may be assessed and changed by a majority vote of the ACCTMTH Council, subject to approval by a majority of active members voting. A quorum of twenty percent of active members may be called and required for that vote.

ARTICLE IX

ADVISORY SUBCOMMITTEES

The Past Presidents of this organization will collectively form an advisory subcommittee. This subcommittee may bring matters to the attention of Council and advise it on matters it is considering. However, neither the advisory subcommittee nor its members, except for the immediate Past President, will have a vote in Council affairs, unless the member has been re-elected as an officer of ACCTMTH.

AMENDMENT 1 (18 NOV, 1992)

A condition of active membership will be payment of dues.

AMENDMENT 2 (30 NOV, 1992)

Council shall annually appoint a nominating subcommittee consisting of five active members. No more than three of those members may be current members of Council. A slate of candidates for offices to be filled at the next annual meeting shall be submitted by mail and/or electronic mail no later than two months prior to the next annual meeting. Members may submit themselves or suggest other active members as candidates to the Chairman of the nominating committee, but the nominating committee will not be obligated to put such individual(s) on the slate unless there is a supporting petition from three active members in addition to the individual proposed.

Election for each office shall be by secret mail and/or electronic mail ballot and determined by majority vote. Mailing and counting ballots shall be the responsibility of the Secretary/Treasurer and/or Secretariat of the ASTMH. The results of voting will be announced in a Newsletter and at the next annual meeting.

Revised: 8 October 2004
