

ASTMH Young Investigator Awards

Each year, ASTMH recognizes the work of outstanding young investigators through the presentation of the Young Investigator Award, a yearly competition held during the first day of the Annual Meeting. This award encourages young scientists to pursue careers in various aspects of tropical disease research. Winners receive up to $900 cash award, First-Tier Mentions receive up to $600 cash award and Honorable Mentions receive up to $450 cash award. Previous Young Investigator Award recipients are NOT eligible to apply again.

Please note that applicants must be current members of ASTMH. Not a member? Join today at the greatly reduced trainee/post- doctoral member rate of $25 or undergraduate member rate of $15.

Online application site – Beginning February 23, submit application online

Young Investigator Award Application deadline – April 13

Instructions for the Two-Step Application Process

Step 1: Annual Meeting Abstract Submission Site

To be considered for this award, applicants must submit an abstract for the Annual Meeting. The abstract submission site will open in early March. Abstracts must be submitted and paid for by April 6 to the online ABSTRACT site. The ABSTRACT site will assign an abstract number. The format will be 22-A-1234-ASTMH. This number will be needed for the YOUNG INVESTIGATOR AWARD submission site.

Only one abstract per application, please.

(ASTMH Travel Awards are available to help fund expenses for the Annual Meeting. Check this site to see if you are eligible.)

Step 2: Young Investigator Award Submission Site

The Young Investigator Award application site will open February 23. Submissions are due by April 13. Complete the online application and upload the supervisor/mentor form, signed by your supervisor/mentor. Please upload a 2x2 high-resolution headshot photo that will be used on signage at the Annual Meeting.

Username and Password - Please note that the username and password for the ABSTRACT submission site and the YOUNG INVESTIGATOR AWARD application submission site ARE NOT THE SAME. A separate username and password will be required for each site.

Very important...The Young Investigator Award Competition is in addition to presenting as either a poster or oral session during the Annual Meeting.

Application Criteria

- Open to ASTMH members only. Not a member? Join today at the greatly reduced trainee/post-doctoral member rate of $25 or undergraduate member rate of $15 prior to submission.
- The applicant must have completed the majority of work that is reported in the accepted abstract as an undergraduate, graduate student or during the first two years of postdoctoral study. (For a young scientist with a medical degree, the two years refers to the actual time spent performing research. The time spent as an intern/resident is not considered part of the two years.)
- The applicant must have had a primary role in the reported experimentation, as evidenced by first-author status on the abstract.
- The applicant must submit their abstract to the Abstract Submission Site by April 6.
- Detailed presentation instructions will be sent to successful applicants in August/September.
- This award competition is limited to researchers that have not yet received a faculty appointment. Applicants who are on faculty at the time of the competition are asked to recuse themselves.
- If you have previously been a Young Investigator Award recipient (i.e., you received a cash award) you are NOT eligible to compete again.

Competition Information

- Applicants will be divided into five presentation groups, Session A through Session F. Applicants will be able to submit up to 10 PPT slides. Applicants will present in presentation order on the schedule beginning at 10 am PT.
- Each applicant should present a 10-minute oral presentation, followed by five-minute question periods. Total presentation time for each participant is 15 minutes.
- Please note that the abstract submitted for oral or poster presentation at the Annual Meeting will be the same abstract presented as an oral presentation during the Young Investigator Award competition.
- From each of the five groups of oral presentations, the judges will select a winner, first-tier mention and honorable mention.
- The Young Investigator Award recipients will be acknowledged by name at the opening plenary session on Sunday, October 30. Award recipients will be invited to attend the President's Reception held during the Annual Meeting.
- No written critiques of presentations will be provided. Competitors are welcome to reach out to individual judges for feedback after the competition.

Final Report

- Awardees are required to submit a one page report within 30 days of the Young Investigator Award competition outlining their meeting experience with respect to career opportunities and professional development. Reports should be submitted to Buffy Finn, Manager, Membership. Certificates and monetary awards will be sent after the conference is over and the final report is received.
