Update Course

Designed for licensed physicians, nurses, nurse practitioners, physician assistants, veterinarians and other health professionals. Developed and presented by internationally recognized experts in the field of tropical medicine and travelers’ health.

Attend This Meeting if You:
1. Have been working in clinical tropical medicine and travelers’ health and want to learn the most up-to-date science in the field.
2. Have been spending some of your professional time in clinical tropical medicine and travelers’ health and are interested in obtaining an overview of the field.

Objectives
1. Prepare patients for overseas travel to Low/Low-Middle Income Countries (LMIC).
2. Diagnose and treat individuals who have become ill during overseas travel or residence.
3. Diagnose and treat individuals living in the tropics and subtropics who are ill.

Benefit from This Course by:
1. Increasing your knowledge of patients’ pre-travel needs.
2. Increasing your knowledge of illness in the returned traveler.
3. Increasing your knowledge of illness in endemic settings.

“Pretty much all the information presented was very much needed and hard to get beyond a text book.”

Disclosure of Faculty’s Commercial Relationships

Consistent with ASTMH policy, faculty are required to disclose any economic or other personal interests that create, or may be perceived as creating, a conflict of interest related to the material discussed. ASTMH resolves personal conflicts of interest. Faculty are required to disclose, at the beginning of their presentation, any product mentioned during their presentation that is not labeled for the use under discussion or is still investigational. This policy is intended to allow participants to form their own judgments about such material.

Course Location

Metro Toronto Convention Centre

This course will be held at the Metro Toronto Convention Centre, 222 Bremner Boulevard, Toronto, Ontario, Canada. The course will be held in the South Building, Room 713. The Metro Toronto Convention Centre is only a minute away from many major attractions. On any given day or night, the downtown core is full of delightful arts and entertainment. Whether it’s the colorful vibe of Kensington Market, or a night at a low-key blues club, there really is something for everyone.

ASTMH Inclusion/Respect Statement

At the Saturday, October 27, 2018, Board meeting of the ASTMH, under the leadership of then-President Regina Rabinovich, MD, FASTMH, the following statement was adopted:

The ASTMH is an international society committed to equity and global impact through the treatment and prevention of tropical infectious diseases. Our diverse membership comes from more than 115 countries and engages with an enormous array of infectious diseases, cultures, ethnicities, and countries. We come from academia, research institutes, implementation programs, industry, multinational organizations, foundations, and governments, gathering annually to exchange data, share learning, and honor contributions from the field and the lab.

As a Society, we are committed to the open exchange of ideas, freedom of thought and expression, and productive scientific debate that are central to our mission. These require an open and diverse environment that is built on dignity and mutual respect for all members, participants, and staff, free of discrimination based on personal attributes including but not limited to ethnicity, color, national origin, age, religion, socioeconomic status, disability, sexual orientation, gender, and gender identity or expression. We affirm the key principles of inclusion, diversity, and respect for all people.

In a world of rich diversity, the advancement of science depends on the intellectual breadth and depth of a diverse ASTMH, one that informs and enriches the shape and content of scientific discourse. These principles guide the actions of ASTMH’s leaders, members, and staff in advancing the goals of the Society.

Information was all very applicable and loved the case-based discussions!
