The Society takes great pride in its diverse membership. Through its elected and appointed leaders, committee structure, awardees, Annual Meeting presenters, etc. ASTMH strongly encourages diversity with regard to gender, race/ethnicity, country, and organization (including academia, governmental and non-governmental institutions, and for-profit companies).

As a Society, we are committed to the open exchange of ideas, freedom of thought and expression, and productive scientific debate that are central to our mission. These require an open and diverse environment that is built on dignity and mutual respect for all members, participants, and staff, free of discrimination based on personal attributes including but not limited to ethnicity, color, national origin, age, religion, socioeconomic status, disability, sexual orientation, gender, and gender identity or expression. We affirm the key principles of inclusion, diversity, and respect for all people. In a world of rich diversity, the advancement of science depends on the intellectual breadth and depth of a diverse ASTMH, one that informs and enriches the shape and content of scientific discourse. These principles guide the actions of ASTMH’s leaders, members, and staff in advancing the goals of the Society.
Application Instructions and Requirements

Gather all application materials prior to online submission. Although it is possible to edit the Travel Award application prior to the April 22 deadline, the submission process will be more efficient if the complete application is posted in one session.

There are two parts to the award application:

Part 1: TRAVEL AWARD application

Part 2: ABSTRACT submission — which requires a description of research and complete author information.

Both parts of the process involve setup of a username and password. The username and password for the TRAVEL AWARD application site will be different than the username and password for the ABSTRACT submission site. Applicants are encouraged to take note of usernames and passwords when accessing each site so the information can be referenced later if necessary.

Part 1: TRAVEL AWARD application available here on March 10.

The first step is to submit the TRAVEL AWARD application. All TRAVEL AWARD applications must be completed by April 21 in order to be considered.

- After entering all the information online, go to the REVIEW SUBMISSION page and scroll to the bottom. If all information has been entered correctly, a drop-down menu will appear at the bottom of the page. Select COMPLETE in the drop-down menu and click SAVE. The application will then be complete and ready for review.

- For applicants who plan to submit more than one abstract for consideration for presentation at the Annual Meeting, select only one abstract to include in the Travel Award application.

Part 2: ABSTRACT submission available here.

Abstracts must be submitted through the ABSTRACT submission site by April 21.

The ABSTRACT submission site will assign an abstract number using the general format 21-A-NUMBER-ASTMH (example: 21-A-1234-ASTMH) — take note of this abstract number. Applicants will need this abstract number for the TRAVEL AWARD application site.

Please note a $50 US submission fee is required. To apply for a Travel Award, the abstract and fee must be submitted by April 21. If the abstract fee is not paid by April 21, the application will not be considered for review.

Only abstracts submitted to the ABSTRACT submission site will be considered. If multiple applicants submit the same abstract as part of their application, the applications will not be considered for funding.

It is very nice to feel part of a big family that dedicates its funds to support researchers around the world.

The preferred browsers for this application system are Internet Explorer and Firefox. Do not use the Google Chrome browser to complete this application; it is not compatible with the application system.

Copying and Pasting Text from Microsoft Word

When completing the curriculum vitae, abstract and questions sections of the travel award application, follow these instructions when copying and pasting text from Microsoft Word:

- Before pasting text into a field, first click the clipboard icon with the "W" that appears in the middle of the tool bar above the text field. Once this icon is clicked, a pop-up window will appear where text can be pasted. Click the cursor in the box to enable pasting.
- If the character limit for a field has been exceeded, click the clipboard icon with the "T" that appears in the middle of the tool bar above the text field. Once this icon is clicked, a pop-up window will appear where text can be pasted. Click the cursor in the box to enable pasting.
- There may be hidden formatting code counting against the character limit for a particular field when copying and pasting. To view the hidden code, click the HTML button in the tool bar above the field. Delete any formatting code that appears in the field. This action might cause formatting (e.g., boldface, underline, etc.) to be lost, but reviewers are more interested in the content of the response than in the format of the response.
- If problems persist when pasting text into a field, save the text in a text file or in a notepad FILE. These files will eliminate all formatting commands (e.g., boldface, underline, etc.). Return to the application submission site and paste the text to the field. Use the tool bar to format.
